1. This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail. The applicant is shown as an accused in C.R.No.301/2006 registered with the Chembur police station on the FIR dated 13.6.2006 lodged by one Dadu Gaikwad. The crime is lodged for offence under Section 304-(B) r/w 34 of IPC. As far as present applicant is concerned, it is admitted in the complaint that she was not residing in the house of the deceased and was staying separately. The only mention is that she used to come to the house of the deceased from time to time and fight with the deceased for petty reasons and filled the ears of the husband. The incident in question is taken place on 8.6.2006 and the FIR narrates that when the Complainant made enquiry from the daughter, the daughter told him that there is a quarrel between the husband and wife and the husband burnt the deceased. It is nobody's case that the applicant was present there at the date of the incident. In my view, investigation can proceed without custodial interrogation of the present applicant. It is therefore, directed that in the event of arrest in connection with C.R.No.301/2006 registered by the Chembur police station the applicant may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety in the like amount subject to the condition that he will report to the investigating officer once a week on every Monday between 10.00 A.M. and 12.00 noon and after the charge-sheet is filed as and when called upon by the investigating officer in writing. Application stands disposed off.
